FRINGE FESTIVAL

Saturday 7th - Wednesday 11th September 2024

"Matt Newbury, Creative Director of the Agatha Christie Festival said: "We are delighted to be opening the Fringe Festival in Brixham this year, with a very special Lucky 7 night of vintage cabaret and burlesque taking place in Brixham Theatre on Saturday 7th September. Called Sparkling Cyanide, this is the perfect chance to dress up and enjoy some cheeky fun and entertainment in this lovely old theatre. I'm also excited that Brixham Operatic and Dramatic Society will be performing Witness for the Prosecution during the festival, which is one of Agatha Christie's cleverest plays, with a truly unexpected twist at the end."

Literary Festival: Thursday 12th - Sunday 15th September. To find out more visit: www.iacf-uk.org

IDEAS & ADVENTURES

Brixham is a place where all visitors, whether staying or just visiting for the day, are made to feel very welcome but Brixham has a special place in its heart for the family.

Whether it's fishing for crabs, discovering the content of a rock pool or building that very special sandcastle, all produce super smiles and sleepy heads.

Using up that boundless energy at Berry Head Country Park or swimming at our very own Shoalstone Outdoor Pool, all great holiday ideas that are totally FREE.

Because Brixham has so much free fun, you can budget for something a bit special such as a boat trip from the harbour. There are so many options to choose from with prices to suit all pockets and no trip to Brixham would be complete without a visit to our very own full sized pirate ship, The Golden Hind. Ideal for the young and young at heart.

During our many family friendly festivals there are often competitions, activity days and events that everyone can join in and be a part of.

Brixham, The Memory Maker.

BITE SIZE HISTORY

HISTORY AT EVERY TURN

Brixham is a town where history is present at every turn. A small alleyway or a beautiful building, most have a tale to tell.

For Instance Do You Know Why:

- We have a copy of the Golden Hind in our harbour?
- Who built those amazing forts on Berry Head?
- What part did Brixham play in WW2?
- Why is Brixhams All Saints Church so famous?

There is so much to learn and discover so why not pay a visit to Brixham Museum, which is FREE to enter. www.brixhammuseum.uk

You will find out so much about our town and its outstanding history and you might even become your own Brixham History Hunter.

THE GREAT OUTDOORS

Brixham is an idea place for walking and offers routes and trails for all ages and abilities

The town is situated on the South West Coast Path route which covers some 630 miles in total. The path can be testing in some places so good walking shoes or boots are recommended for this route and other walks in the area.

Berry Head and Sharkham Point offers some spectacular trails and Battery Gardens mixes walking with history. A evening stroll around the harbour finishing at Breakwater beach is ideal as a taster route.

explore our towns history, art and beauty with FREE themed walks at www.brixhamwalks.org . Just chose the theme and follow the map.

You will find Brixham is very dog friendly and quite often four paws are as welcome as two feet.

When walking with your dog, especially on holiday, it can be an exciting and fun experience for all but please do take care in unfamiliar areas.

Please don't let your dog off the lead near cliff tops or in open field where there may be live stock - and always follow the Clean Up Code.

FOOD DELIGHTS

Shopping and eating... two great pastimes when on holiday or any time for that matter. Brixham will not disappoint on either count.

Food is everywhere you look, from top class cafés to award winning sea food restaurants, with the emphasis on homemade and locally sourced ingredients.

Being a fishing port, our fish is as fresh as it can be, if you have never sampled seafood here is the place to do it.

Whatever takes your fancy, we have it in Brixham... And don't worry we have some great walks to burn off all those extra calories!

BRIXHAM ART & CRAFT MARKET

One of the highlights of our beautiful town is our very special Arts and Craft Market which is situated on our picturesque harbour.

Starting at Easter and running through till October our market takes place Wednesday to Sunday with stalls on rotation. This means that one visit is never enough!

All products are local, handmade and offer real quality. There is nowhere better to treat yourself or find that special something to take home as a present.

To find out more information about our market please like and follow them on Facebook @BrixhamArtAndCraftMarket

Sometimes if the weather is bad we might have to cancel the market at short notice, this information is always on the markets Facebook page.

SHOP TILL YOU DROP

Shopping is a joy in our beautiful town, not just because our shops are easy to access, but the fact that we offer such a diverse range, something for everyone.

Our town has the some high street favourites combined with a suburb range of high quality independent shops which offer everything from artisan bread to hand made arts and craft.

Brixham has become a destination for quality and unique shopping. Each street has something different to offer so make sure you take your time to explore.

Our town map in this guide indicates all the shopping areas so you won't have to miss a thing.

You can even take home a Devon Cream Tea or some wonderful fresh Brixham fish, all packed for your journey.

Brixham has it all.
